

Brittany Vine

Brittany brings millennial leadership to community trauma-informed care. She was a Harvard Diversity Education Fellow and has consulted on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion for the LGBTQS+ community.

She holds an MEd from Merrimack College, Boston and has worked extensively with inner city homelessness and addictions. Brittany has a decade of experience in trauma-informed community engagement, elevating the voices of persons with lived experience across multi-lateral projects in poverty, homelessness, mental illness, addictions, human trafficking, etc. in Canada, the U.S.A and West Africa.

