

Nimmy George

Nimmy is a trauma-informed project manager with expertise in organizational governance and stakeholder management, having led complex stakeholder projects nationally and globally. She is an active speaker, representing the South-Asian female millennial immigrant experience.

Nimmy leads national conversations on gender equality and intergenerational trauma.

