

Nancy Pike

Nancy Pike is a retired registered Social Worker with a Master's of Social Work from Dalhousie University. She holds a Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Victoria. She also holds certificates in Elementary School Teaching and Health Law.

Nancy has over 40 years of experience as a registered social worker, health care worker, educator and administrator. She has taught at various universities including Dalhousie University, the University of Victoria and Vancouver Island University. Nancy owned and operated the Left to Write Third Age Creativity organization, which support children and young adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Additionally, she has been a project coordinator for the British Columbia Division of Canadian Mental Health in Child and Youth Mental Health. Nancy has volunteered with the BC Special Olympics and BC Schizophrenia Society.

Nancy is thankful to have worked with so many wonderful parents, students and individuals over the years. She focuses on a one-on-one listening based framework. Most importantly, Nancy is grateful to always learn from those she works with.

